GOVERNANCE MEETING 2:30-3:00		NOTES
I	Welcome / Introductions
II	Approve Minutes	Approved by consensus.
III	Old Business	None
IV	Committee Reports:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ PTA - Unit Meeting Update 	Parent Night Out was a success. Students did a “light stick” run on the new track. A food drive to benefit the Jacobs & Cushman San Diego Food Bank and the North County Food Bank will be in process the week of 12-9-19. This year’s on-line fundraiser was very successful. The Book Fair was very successful in spite of an area power outage the first day. The scheduled December meeting will be cancelled.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Cluster Council Meeting 	Report next month with Site SSC feedback.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Site Wellness Committee 	Gage’s committee members: Stefanie Hayes, staff, Jillian Rego, student; Ashleigh Campbell, PTA, and Steve Geitz, parent. VEBA may possibly sponsor a yoga program for staff. The Wellness program is encouraging staff and students to say or do something that makes someone else feel good. Ms. Hayes is going to propose Family Walks in the neighborhood. Ms. Burns requested exploring a grant to fund meditation or yoga classes for students.
V	New Business:	None
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Roundtable: 	Hayes: Expressed concern that a neighborhood family who chose to send their children to another school based on the perception that Gage was not offering as much. That family was surprised to learn how strong an emphasis there is on the STEM program as well as the Spanish Immersion Program. The consensus was that more information should be included on Gage’s web page. There were offers to assist with creating the text and securing photos to show a well-rounded display of what is happening on our campus. Mr. Griffith commented on the positive feedback he received from his recent presentation of the Restorative Justice Training (RJT) at a recent staff meeting. He has offered to demonstrate in specific classrooms at teacher request. Adjourned: 2:50
